

About Celt Ward

Celt Ward is currently a Theatre student at Santa Monica College. Originally from Richardson, Texas, he has been acting for over eight years and brings both passion and dedication to every role he takes on.

Celt's recent stage credits include Something Rotten! (Robin/Bard Boy), Romeo and Juliet (Romeo), Grease (Doody), and Seussical (Horton) with Santa Monica College, as well as Urinetown (Bobby Strong) with A Class Act NY. He is incredibly honored to be a part of this MLK the Musical production and is grateful for the opportunity to help bring this dream to life on stage.
