

About Jesse Campbell

A unique sound. A work of heart. An unparalleled experience.

Internationally recognized recording artist Jesse Campbell performs universal music to audiences across the world. With an unwavering dedication and passion for music, he leaves a lasting impression on every song he presents. Born in Chicago, IL, Jesse's musical journey began at the age of sixteen leading songs in his father's church choir. In 1994, he signed to Capitol Records/Underworld and released his debut album "Never Let You Go" featuring the single "When You Cry, I Cry." Later he achieved further success with the certified-gold hit "Where Is the Love," from the movie soundtrack Dead Presidents directed by The Hughes Brothers.

Jesse's talent has earned him opportunities to perform alongside renowned speakers and collaborate with Industry-leading recording artists, and entertainers. His participation in NBC's "The Voice" during season two showcased his exceptional vocal abilities, garnering him a larger fan base and global recognition. Jesse has since performed as a celebrity guest on "The Voice" in Vietnam and collaborated with major companies like McDonald's, Apple, Spirit, and Cellardoor Winery. With his originality, charisma, and boundless energy, Jesse Campbell continues to rise to greatness in today's musical landscape.