

About Maurier Johnson

Maurier Johnson is an LA native and a rising actor with a growing body of work across theater, television, and film. He is thrilled to join this production as Herman Hemingway. Maurier began acting in 2000 with the role of (BIG JULIE) in Guys and Dolls, a performance that sparked his lifelong dedication to the craft. Maurier has trained at Mc2 Actors Studios, where he developed strong acting fundamentals and a deep respect for the process. His theatre credits include DARA (FAQIR), The Life and Death of Julius Caesar (JULIUS CEASAR), Six Characters in Search of an Author, and multiple productions at Santa Monica College, where he is currently pursuing his Theater Arts degree.

On screen, Maurier has appeared in several notable projects. His television credits include Celebrity Crime Files, where he portrayed BUMPY JOHNSON, and High Potential (Season 2). His film work includes roles in Death Row Records It's Me, Not You: The Movie. Maurier continues to expand his on-camera presence and is building a diverse portfolio of characters across genres.

In addition to acting, Maurier is a singer, fitness trainer, barber, and model, bringing a strong physical presence and discipline to each performance. His artistry is also influenced by his cousin Theo and his late uncle Sonny, whose passion for music and creativity helped shape his own journey. Maurier is grateful for the gifts God has given him and strives to bring honesty, intention, and purpose to every role.

He is honored to be telling this story about the Legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Continuing the legacy of this great leader.
