

About Traci Peace-Greco

Traci Peace-Greco, is a Wardrobe Stylist and 4th generation San Franciscan. She has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Child Psychology from San Francisco State University and studied Italian in Milan, Italy at Linguadue Scoula di Italiano, as well as at Instituto di Cultura in San Francisco.

When Traci was a little girl, her passion for wardrobe and high fashion was directly influenced by her beloved late grandmother, Mrs. Gussie Cotton-Mulford. She was Traci's greatest "high fashion" influence and exposed her to the great couture houses of Europe. Having grown up at Faith Temple Church of God in Christ, she was surrounded by beautiful women (including her mom, Mrs. Mary Ann Peace) wearing gorgeous custom designs, "dapper" gentlemen (her Dad, Mr. Joseph Peace included), Traci's sartorial late great-grand father Pastor F.W. Cotton and his impeccable taste in classic "English" tailored suiting...all had a profound impact on her. She knew as a little girl, that she wanted to be part of the world of "wardrobe and high style" in some "FORM" or "FASHION"!

Traci has been blessed to work with: Taylor Swift, Beyoncé, Lady Gaga, Justin Timberlake, Elton John, Katy Perry, SZA, Madonna, Simone Biles, Nicki Minaj and more. She was asked to work with the youth cast of "Harry Potter and the Cursed Child," (San Francisco premier), annually requested to dress and style up to 29 kids for American Conservatory Theater "A Christmas Carol", worked with Tony Award winning Broadway shows, costume stylist for Paramount Pictures film, "Dreamgirls" (San Francisco, Chicago, Paris – film previews), ME3 Productions (Los Angeles), Carlstrom Productions (Los Angeles/San Francisco) and much more.

Although Traci is grateful to have the opportunity to work within her love of wardrobe styling, she is also passionate about working with kids. Traci is the Founder of Visions of La Moda Fashion Studio for Youth (VOLM), a free non-profit 501(c)(3), high fashion program for youth in San Francisco. She was blessed to take the students of VOLM to the New York Collections/New York Fashion Week, arranged for them to be invited guests to the fashion shows and also have internship opportunities with the fashion houses. Traci was also invited by American Vogue Magazine to bring the students for a private tour of "Teen Vogue Magazine". VOLM was profiled in the "STYLE" section of the San Francisco Chronicle, was featured in a 2013 news story on NBC Bay Area - 3 (<https://we.tl/b-7wcEz5dYYt>) and also contacted by ABC Bay Area – 7 for a subsequent story.

Her greatest JOY is working with the "Young Lady Ushers" of Faith Temple Church of God in Christ. Traci and the girls have a great time "styling" their "fashionable usher looks" each week and enjoy lots of fun activities, adventures and trips. With great thanks to her "kind" Pastor, Larry David Cotton; she is honored (along with those amazing girls) to assist, serve and see to the needs of the wonderful members and guests of Faith Temple Church of God in Christ.

Traci is extremely grateful to be a small part of this magnificent and historical production and to have the opportunity to be of service to these magnificent artists and performers.
