

About Henry Gilmore

Henry studied acting at South Coast Repertory, UCLA, Don Richardson's Conservatory, Scott Sedita's Comedy Class, etc. He performed in original plays like: 'Omalingwo', 'American Guerrilla', 'The Rules of Color', etc., at the Inglewood Playhouse. He has also performed in theaters across Southern California in numerous parts in play like: 'The Old Settler' (Husband Witherspoon) at the Long Beach Playhouse, 'Lillies of the Field' (lead, Homer Smith) at the Palos Verdes Playhouse, 'The Music Man' (Mayor Shinn) at the Miles Memorial Playhouse in Santa Monica, and 'The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee' (Vice Principal Panch) at the J. Stage Merage Theater in Irvine.

Henry has appeared in films like 'Real Men Don't Bleed', 'Grandpa's Gold', 'The Hostage', 'The Porch Party', etc. And he recently wrapped filming on the upcoming film, 'Life Not As We Like It'. Henry is thrilled to be performing in this long overdue musical about some of his heroes, like Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Mrs. Coretta Scott King, Bayard Rustin, and other stellar Civil Rights icons and activists.
